GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. The customer is using a warehouse operated by a third party. In order to keep track of the materials in the warehouse and to plan their shipment, we request a shipment control number (SCN) by notifying them about material to be sent. And we ask the manufacturer to put this number visibly on the pallets.
2. Before delivering the goods please ask SCN number from us and without SCN number please do not deliver the goods.
3. Since the project location is confidential information, this information would be not written in any document.
4. If products are lost on the way or in the field, our customer will ask us for proof that the products have been shipped. If we are unable to provide this proof, we will have to resend the items free of charge. In order to avoid this situation, we need to the photo of the products, proof of shipment and the package list for each shipment.
5. After the shipment, we will be waiting for the tracking number and invoice of the shipment.
